

The Hungarian Chocolate Manufactory chocoMe has Captured Yet Another Seven International Accolades at the Regional Leg of the International Chocolate Awards

chocoMe, world-renowned for its chocolate specialties, has returned from the Eastern European leg of the International Chocolate Awards with a plethora of medals. At the virtual awards ceremony held online on 9 July, the Hungarian chocolate manufactory captured two golds and two silver, as well as three special awards.

In fact, the international jury of refined taste recognised every single chocoMe dessert entered in the prestigious contest. The bite-sized dark chocolate squares of chocoMe Petit 21 with a mango infused filling earned a silver medal, as well as a special recognition for the exceptional quality of its ingredients.

Three different taste variations of the exquisite chocoMe Raffinée 3 dragée selection achieved great success at the competition, two of them also receiving special recognition. One of them, the Sicilian almond coated with almond couverture and Nepalese timur pepper, won a gold medal, and was also commended for its use of the finest ingredients. The jury showed great love for the crispy Tuono almonds from Sicily, the velvety smooth couverture, and the Timur pepper from Nepal with notes of grapefruit.

The Sicilian almonds coated in dark chocolate and yuzu couverture also received double recognition, thanks in no small part to the dark chocolate from Madagascar. The explosive freshness and fragrance of yuzu, an exotic citrus plant, makes this recipe a memorable experience.

The third heavenly combination of chocoMe Raffinée 3 – Piemonte hazelnuts coated in hazelnut flavoured milk chocolate and passion fruit couverture – was awarded a silver medal at the regional finals.

chocoMe founder and owner Mr. Gábor Mészáros has once again proven worthy of the title “Dragée Magician” bestowed on him in 2019 by Monica Meschini, chief organiser of the International Chocolate Awards. In fact, chocoMe continues to believe that seductively sumptuous chocolate still has the power to turn every day into a celebration, even in these less-than-regular times.
