chocoMe Spring is here with a Multitude of Intoxicating Flavours

chocoMe unveils its first preserve and introduces a number of delicious new chocolate selections

Following its Easter delicacies, chocoMe continues its chocolate-y spring spectacle with collections of its most popular desserts. Recipient of an unmatched number of awards – including several international accolades –, the Hungarian manufactory surprises its customers with a brand new product category: chocoMe demonstrates its relentless dedication to quality and heavenly flavours as it enters the world of preserves.

The Petit 21 triple selection contains both well-known and new flavours that have earned a combined total of seven awards at international chocolate competitions.

Bite-sized chocolate squares with raspberry infused filling

Bite-sized milk chocolate squares with Piemonte hazelnut praline and Ethiopian Harrar coffee filling

Bite-sized dark chocolate squares with mango infused filling

The special selection caters to the tastes of both milk chocolate aficionados and dark chocolate connoisseurs.

Another triple treat comes in the shape of the exclusive Voilé 3 selection which is a novel combination of three best-selling and multiple award-winning chocolate coated dessert specialties.

Three personalities, three flavours.

Candied Spanish orange peel coated with dark chocolate and spiced with cinnamon and clove

Candied ginger coated with dark chocolate

Mango slices coated with dark chocolate

Celebrating its eleventh anniversary this year, chocoMe remains committed to innovation and perfectionism despite the less-than-regular circumstances of the past year. After nearly one hundred international accolades, the manufactory revolutionises yet another field of confectionery. Mango is a firm favourite fruit of chocoMe's, and its dreamy rendezvous with pineapple from Costa Rica results in a unique preserve with reduced sugar content.

Once again, chocoMe fills the season with a multitude of flavours and dessert specialties that bring true joy to our customers who can remain faithful to their long-time favourites, now returning as wondrous choco-triplets, as well as find a new favourite in the newly introduced chocoMe mango-pineapple preserve which seduces with its radiant sun yellow colour and exotic, sophisticated yet mystifying flavours, turning each day into a celebration of gastronomy.
