chocoMe won again international professional accolades at the Great Taste Awards and International Chocolate Awards

Hungarian chocolate manufactory chocoMe has earned five different accolades at the Great Taste Awards and International Chocolate Awards. The creator of amazing chocolate dreams has now collected no less than two silver and three bronze medals at the world's most prestigious tasting competitions.

The global competition of Great Taste Awards, open for a wide number of product categories, is well known for its jury of 400 connoisseurs with exquisite taste and unquestionable opinion, who have been mesmerised by the magical compositions of chocoMe for six years running. The panel includes chefs from world renowned Michelin star restaurants, recognised gastronomers, purchasing directors of prime department stores (Harrods, Fortnum&Mason, Selfridges, Harvey Nichols or Whole Food Markets) and well-known food critics who spend several thousand hours blind tasting product samples that are distributed unpackaged and unlabelled.

International Chocolate Awards is the world's largest chocolate product competition. By helping to identify the best chocolate made with the best cacao, they hope to help chocolate makers, chocolatiers and cacao farmers continue to succeed at producing the world's best fine cacao and fine chocolate. Their goal is helping the fine chocolate industry to grow and develop in established regions as well as new markets and concentrating on traceable cacao sourcing.

With these three new awards, chocoMe has reached its 112 international professional awards. This means even more recognition for the brand, and even tastier desserts for the customers.
